BLOODY BATTLE SUNDAY

Italians Killed Two Officers and Roper of Brooklyn was seriously but Wounded One Fatally.

Chicken Feeding-Situation Darker In Cuba-Review of the Atlantic Fleet-Tribute to Emperor William.

In a bloody battle Sunday evening near Punxsutawney, Pa., between foreigners and the 21 members of Troop D. state constabulary, in which fully 500 shots were fired, two troopers were killed and one fatally wounded, while three other persons received bullet wounds.

The trouble began late in the day when Sergeant Logan went to Florence to search for Leopold Scarlat, who is charged with having shot his brother-in-law. Logan was in a doctor's office when Salvatore Waltsoch, who is said to be one of the most desperate members of the "Black Hand," started a fight with a countryman in front of the house where Waltsoch boards.

When Logan placed Waltsoch under arrest the latter invited him into the boarding house to prove his good character. Logan had scarcely passed the door when one of three Italians in the house made an ineffectual lunge at him with a stiletto. Logan retreated but an Italian opened fire upon him with a magazine shotgun. Logan returned the fire and the two men emptied their weapons at each other. Logan got a buckshot wound in the foot and the Italian was seen to fall back into the house, perhaps fatally wounded.

Logan, by inquiring of the residents, learned that he had a "black hand" man to deal with. He telephoned to the barracks and a detachment of five privates was detailed by Lieutenant Eagle to assist him.

When the detachment arrived at Florence Private John Henry immediately started for the house, but when about 20 feet from it was shot down. Chambers and Mullen, in attempting the rescue of Henry, were both shot hefore they reached him. A telephone call was sent in for the entire force and 15 additional troopers were hurried to the scene.

The second detachment arrived at dusk. While 12 of the constabulary kept firing into the windows and front doors of the house six policemen made a rush for the side door, which they battered in. Three of the officers, Tionesta, Pa. Zehringer, Gross and Cummings, dash ed up the stairs but were confronted by three of the Italians who opened fire. Zehringer fell at the first volley but the two other men escaped.

The house where the Italians were barricaded was finally destroyed by dynamite and two Italians were arrested. One of the inmates was dead and another fatally wounded.

Great Welcome to William J. Bryan. William Jennings Bryan, who arrived in New York harbor Wednesday after noon and spent the night with friends on a steam yacht down the bay, entered New York city Thursday at 4 o'clock and was the recipient of a continuing ovation from that hour until late at night, when he had finished a notable 80-minute address before 20,-000 persons gathered in Madison Square Garden. Mr. Bryan outlined clearly and vigorously the principles he thought should guide the Democrats

In their next campaign. Greeted by nearly every prominent Democrat in the country and accompanied by them, Mr. Bryan was driven from the yacht landing at the Battery to the Victoria hotel. He was constantly cheered by those on the crowded sidewalks. Once at the hotel he was fairly mobbed by thousands of his admirers, was called upon for an impromptu speech and then shook hands for more than an hour with an apparently never ending line of citizens. He dined with his family and friends and then was driven in an automobile to Madison Square Garden where his welcome home was made complete in a series of some of the most remarkable demonstrations New York has ever known. The garden meeting was presided over by Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland. There were brief addresses by Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, Augustus Thomas, the playwright; Harry W. Walker of the Commercial Travelers' Anti-Trust League, under whose auspices the reception was given, and Mr. Johnson.

Mr. Bryan also addressed an overflow meeting outside the garden. He was then driven to his hotel, where he was personally greeted by William R. Hearst, who had been loudly cheered as he sat in a box at the garden meet-

Died Just Before Policy Expired. Dr. Shaw F. Neeley of Kansas City, Kan., former United States marshal of Kansas and several times mayor of Leavenworth, died 15 minutes before the policy of $45,000 on his life would have expired. The filing of his will developed that fact. Dr. Neeley had a policy for $45,000 in the Mutual Life of New York. He had allowed payment to become overdue and taken advantage of the 30 days' grace allowed by the policy. He dled at 11:45 o'clock at night. Had he lived until midnight the 30 days would have been expired.

F. N. Cheney, St. Louis manager for the company, says satisfactory proof of the time of Dr. Neeley's death has been furnished and the policy will be niversary of Christ church, Oyster Bay, and will deliver an address.

An Involuntary Balloon Ascension. Caught by the anchor of a balloon and whirled 500 feet in the air over the heads of 5,000 spectators, a Mrs.

Maggie Dailey of Middletown, who has been making daily ascensions at Bryan's Reception-Involuntary Bal- the fair grounds in a hot air balloon, foon Ascension-Experiments in had just entered the car and was about to give the order to cast off when the balloon broke loose and salls ed upwards with the anchor trailing. Before the bystanders could scatter the anchor fluke caught in Mrs. Roper's dress and she was whipped up into the air screaming. The weight on the anchor rope caused the balloon to tip over and Miss Dailey, looking out of the car to ascertain the cause of trouble, caught sight of her involuntary fellow voyager swinging far below at the end of the rope, and at once pulled the safety

The balloon, which by that time had reached an altitude of 500 feet, quickly descended and reached ground a quarter of a mile from the point of ascension. Mrs. Roper struck the ground heavily and when picked up was found to be unconscious and to have sustained fractures of the shoulder, ankle and several fingers. She had been summering at Walker Valley, Ulster county.

Experiments In Chicken Feeding.

The hen must do more work. This s the idea of the agricultural department. Robert R. Slocum, a poultry expert, has been employed to devise ways and means by which chicken raising can be rendered more profit-

Mr. Slocum will be attached to the Bureau of Animal Industry. His first step will be to found a poultry-feeding astablishment in connection with the pureau's quarantine station near Baltimore, where experiments in hog feeding have been carried on for some

There will be three pens constructed for the accommodation of 25 hens each. The fowls will be fed on different plans. One of the pens will be fed with whole grain and cracked corn, together with a wet mash, and the other the same with a dry mash

The chickens in the third pen will be fed from self-feeding hoppers, and will have food available at all times, so that they can eat as much as they want. The effect on egg production and fattening will be recorded.

Situation Darker In Cuba.

The war situation in Cuba is far tarker today than at any previous time since the insurrection broke out. News of an uprising in Santiago province is causing the gravest concern. charge d'affaires here, was told the contents of the Santiago dispatch he endeavored to verify it through the state department, but was told it was absolutely untrue. Subsequently the dispatch was verified from private sources and from newspaper sources. It is the opinion here that the worst calamity of all to the Palma government would be an insurrection in Eastern Cuba.

Two reliablie eye witnesses say that Cardenas, which hitherto has been considered a perfectly peaceful city, was the scene Thursday of desultory fighting between police and rural guards on one side and roving insurgents on the other. The only province remaining peaceful is Puerto Principe.

Tribute to Emperor William.

Colonel Lambert of Chicago says France and Germany are more prosperous than Great Britain, and especially Germany, owing to Emperor Willlam's surpassing gifts as a ruler.

The emperor, he said, bad put Germany in the way of becoming the richest nation in Europe, had perfected the finest army on the continent and was laying the foundations of one of the greatest fleets affoat.

His consular service, Colonel Lambert said, was an unmatched triumph, and behind it subsidized railways and steamships, methodically fostered trusts and a tariff like a Chinese wall "If we are not careful," Colonel Lambert added, "he will lick us out of our bcots all over the world.'

BATTLE OF 42 ROUNDS.

Battling Nelson Lost the Fight by Fouling Joe Gans.

Sans' Endurance Surprised Everyone. In the 33rd Round He Broke His Fought a Clean Fight.

Goldfield, Nev., Sept. 4. - Battling Nelson lost the fight by fouling Joe Jans in the 42d round of the best and ongest fight seen in many years.

Both men were tired when the fight ended but Gans was apparently the stronger. He was away ahead on points and had smashed and cut Nelson all through the fight without being severely hurt himself.

Shortly after the 42d round began he men were in their usual clinch. Nelson had his head on Gans' shoulder and his arm down. Several times he ait Gans below the belt, apparently feeling for a vital spot. At last he irew back his right arm and hit Gans a vicious blow square into the groin. The colored boy sank to his knees and colled over on his back. Referee Siler without hesitation ordered Nelson to is corner and awarded the fight to Jans on a foul, Decision Had Unanimous Approval. Siler's decision received almost ananimous approval. The foul was so obvious that not even men who had bet on Nelson could say that it had not been committed. All through the long contest Nelson had employed rough tactics. He repeatedly butted Gans, and had to have his head hauled away by the referee.

Referee Siler said that while he would not say that the foul was intentional, there was no doubt but it had been committed. Nelson, he said, had employed his usual tactics all through the fight and while he knew that Nelson was butting whenever he had an opportunity he did not disqualify for hat because he saw that it was not aurting Gans and because no other referee had ever disqualified Nelson for doing the same thing. Besides, the people were there to see the fight and he did not want to disappoint them.

Siler was loudly cheered as he left the ring, as was Gans, who was carried to his dressing room. Nelson and his seconds were hissed as they departed. Billy Nolan, Nelson's manager, made a disconnected statement in which he said that Gans had promised not to claim the decision on a oul and yet he jumped at the first of portunity to make such a claim. All Nelson would say was that Gans was Gans in many ways put up a remarkable fight. His endurance surprised every one. His work was the more wonderful when it is known that in the 33rd round he broke his right hand. Never after that did he strike a blow with it with the exception of a few short arm jolts while clinching. He did all his work with the left hand. Gans' generalship was shown when he broke the hand. In the 33rd round he landed a hard right punch on the side of Nelson's face. A bone in the hand snapped and Gans stepped back with an expression of pain. He limped around as though he had hurt a foot and no one realized that he had injured the right hand.

Gans said after the fight that Nelson intentionally fouled. He said he knew he could finish Nelson, as he was comparatively strong and Nelson was growing weaker all the time. "Larry" Sullivan announced for Gans that he would meet Nelson in two weeks in another fight, as he was sure he could whip him and did not want to take advantage of the foul.

Gans explained that he did not want to box Nelson for fear of tiring himself. He found early that he could protect himself in clinches and realized that the exertion in fighting that way was less than if he stood back and did some showy boxing. He was hitting Nelson all the time and making the Dane do most of the work

The first 15 rounds of the fight were ast. After that the men slowed up Although Gans was far ahead of Nelson in points and most of the time looked like a sure winner, Nelson put up a wonderful fight. Time and again Gans would jolt him on the jaw, sending the Dane back. His knees would bend and his eyes become glazed, but he always fell into a clinch and held on and would then come back fighting as hard as ever.

On occasions Nelson apparently had the advantage. He would hit Gans as they broke from a clinch and the colored boy would hang on and wrestle.

Gans Fought a Clean Fight. Gans fought a clean fight. Twice when he knocked Nelson down he picked him up. Once when one o Gans' punches knocked Nelson through the ropes Gans picked him up and helped him to his feet. As the colored boy stood with his hands down waiting for Nelson to steady himself Nelson gave him a vicious blow in the stomach. Nelson was roundly hissed for this by the crowd. Although Goldfield is a mining camp there was no disturbance of any kind and no rough language used. Gans was the favorite. His behavior won the admiration of the Goldfield people

The attendance was about 5,000. About 200 women were present. Announcer Sullivan declared that one of the sons of President Roosevelt was in Philadelphia, Sept. 3 .- Justice is to be meted out to the men responsible, with Frank K. Hipple, the suicide president of the Real Estate Trust company, for the collapse of that institution. Announcement was made that the evidence so far unearthed by Receiver Earle has been placed in the hands of District Attorney Bell, who is expected to cause the arrest of the wreckers. Receiver Earle maintains that it was impossible for President Hipple to so entangle the company's affairs without the knowledge of others connected with the institution. Acting on this impression he has been persistent in his efforts to discover evidence of collusion.

Directors, officials and clerks of the trust company were examined during terred with District Attorney Bell.

Among the witnesses were four of the directors who are said to have heard of Hipple's heavy loans to Adolf Segal, the promoter, at least several weeks ago.
